Session 3: Examples of good practice for the use of information and communication technologies

Ann Wallén-Fogde

How to Use ICT in Building Strategic Competence - Case: TietoEnator Oyj

The presentation will cover the opportunities and potential of using latest information and communication technology in the digital economy, for creating leading expertise and a global competitive edge. The presentation-case will be about TietoEnator, one of the leading high-value added IT services companies in Europe, with an annual net sales exceeding EUR 1,1 billion. TietoEnator provides consulting, systems development and integration, operation and support, product development and software services through close to 12,000 employees in 19 countries all over the world.

1 Vice President Human Resources Development, TietoEnator Oyj, Finland